

I am writing in support of the radio station K-love. I believe this station serves an important function in our community. Young people want to listen to contemporary music. K-love provides contemporary music with positive lyrics free from violence, drugs, sex and other things. If this station is replaced it will leave a big hole. I looked for a long time to find a station the whole family could enjoy listening to. I know many other families that feel the same way.